Preface to make me understand. Let me know.

A national curriculum is required to produce. Features:

- A national strategy: Pedagogy to make learning effective.
- A national policy: Material for teaching, learning.
- A national program: Teaching materials, learning materials.
- A national framework: National curriculum, national program.

I would proceed with the following procedures:

1. Preparing the national strategy for teaching and learning.
2. Preparing the national curriculum for learning.
3. Preparing the national program for teaching.
4. Preparing the national framework for our educational system.
